

Vita

Lily Dorfman

Lily Dorfman is a Professor of piano and chamber music at the Buchman Mehta Academy of Music at Tel Aviv University. She studied at the Gensin Academy of Music in Moscow between 1964-1969, and graduated with a master's degree. In 1973, Mrs. Dorfman immigrated to the Land of Israel with her family. She taught at music conservatories in Ramat Hasharon and Givatayim, where many of her students became top winners at regional and international piano competitions, later developing a brilliant professional career as pianists. Since 2005, Prof. Dorfman has been part of the piano faculty at ISAM, the International Summer Academy of Music, where she conducts master classes and judges the competitions held every year. Pianists from all over the world studied with her at the ISAM academy, and later participated in and won prestigious international competitions. Throughout her career as a piano pedagogue, Prof. Dorfman has given master classes around the world, including Kyiv and Sumy (Ukraine,) Mozarteum in Salzburg (Austria,) Tallinn (Estonia), Frankfurt, Michelstadt and Ochsenhausen (Germany.)