The “ISAM Society” (“Foerder-ISAM e.V.”) supports the annual organization of the “International Summer Academy of Music” at Ochsenhausen which is the biggest institution for musical education in Germany and one of the most beautiful as well.

It helps to finance grants and tries to collect the necessary means for the support of students in need.

Full and partial scholarships are available based on need and talent of the participants.

Winners of the ISAM Competition will be honored by an award.

The ISAM GOALS

ISAM encourages a coming-together of musical minds. The intensive educational and musical frame enables positive interaction between students of different background, religions, and cultures based upon artistic creativity.

Of big importance is to revive and strengthen the role of Jewish music and Jewish musicianship in Europe, particularly in Germany.

Another goal is to create meaningful interaction between ISAM's participants and the local community and audiences.

For that reason, all concerts, recitals, competitions and cultural events are free and open to the public.
